Death rate from outdoor air pollution vs. GDP per capita, 2021

Our World in Data

Death rates are measured as the number of premature deaths attributed to outdoor particulate matter air pollution per 100,000 individuals. Gross domestic product (GDP) per capita is measured in constant international-$.

Data source: IHME, Global Burden of Disease (2024); World Bank (2023)

OurWorldinData.org/outdoor-air-pollution | CC BY